Steel Mill Near Stamps Under Consideration

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Two leaders in the southwest Arkansas iron industry said Wednesday a new company is trying to get financial backing to construct a steel mill near Stamps.

Arthur and Herbert Russell of Magnolia said the mill would cost $1.5 million and could be erected in 90 days. The brothers have been key figures in development of the iron ore deposits in the area.

The Russells said Arkansas industrialists are seeking connections with steel mills to erect a pig iron plant in the same area.

They described the proposed steel mill as a sponge operation that would take impurities from raw iron ore and provide waste-free material for the pig iron plant.

The name of the corporation involved is being withheld, pending completions of negotiations, they said.

Lafayette County has been qualified by the Area Redevelopment Administration for a loan. The Russells said the mill may be partially financed with federal money.

Louisiana plants now use most of the iron ore being recovered in the area. Shipment of the material is currently made by truck and rail, but a development plan calls for opening of the Red River to navigation in the next five years.

Raw iron ore is mined in the Stamps-Magnolia area in the corporate name of Southwest Enterprises, Inc.

Gift for Pioneer Washington

— Hope Star photo.

The Washington Restoration Foundation received this huge hand made knife Wednesday from an anonymous donor. It was mailed from Hot Springs, Ark. The knife and handle measure 18 inches — the blade 11 1/2 and the handle 6 1/2 and the blade is 2 1/2 inches wide. Mrs. Georgia Haynes, holds the knife.

The "weapon" was wrapped in cardboard with the following message:

Soliloquy: I am "Longknife." No man, now living, knows my history. I have had three handles: the first was horn, with a heavy silver guard —

I also had a fancy sheath; made of thick cowhide and ornaments of silver.

My second handle was made of "Osage" and had a brass guard. This handle split, and was replaced with a handle of black walnut.

There is a "smith-mark" on my blade that resembles a tree; possibly a Magnolia tree — or could it be an ancestor of the big Magnolia tree at Washington?

I have been used for offense and defense, blazed many trails and helped harvest many crops.

I have given my owners an added feeling of confidence, courage, and security.

Says Leaders Under Fire of 'Hate Groups'

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Vice President Lyndon Johnson said today the nation's leadership was under fire of an indistinct movement bent on undermining its prestige.

Johnson told the Arkansas Bar Association in a prepared talk that Democrats and Republicans alike were under attack by groups of hate both at home and abroad.

Johnson called it a vicious undertow in the tides of public opinion. He said it encourages the people to judge public service by emotion and misrepresentation rather than by fair examination.

The vice president did not defend public officials from honest criticism but he said it was imperative to "guard against those groups who would undermine all our liberties by recklessly undermining public trust in the public service itself."

"In terms of the great struggle in which the world is locked today, this tendency to mistrust our fellow Americans can be disastrous," he said.

Johnson singled out no group by name.

He spoke of the cold war as basically a battle of nerves and added:

"I have always believed that we cannot be defeated by the communists, but we can defeat ourselves if we divide in an eternal series of bitter quarrels among ourselves."

"Because there is a monopoly on the news that comes to us from behind the iron curtain, many Americans have the feeling that our side is not doing well in the cold war. But the evidence continues to mount—higher and higher every day—that all is not well in the lands that are owned by the Kremlin."

Johnson, apparently recovered from a cold, went on a car ride around this resort city this morning. Johnson's voice was hoarse when he arrived last night by plane from Colorado Springs, Colo., and he complained of a sore throat.

Johnson cited the flow of refugees from Red China and the recent announced food price increase in Russia as signs of Soviet economic weakness.

He called the U.S. economic situation strong and cited the industrial upsurge of western Europe and the common market as reassuring economic vanes which along with space achievements and Peace Corps efforts were "powerful, indisputable facts in the case of the free world versus Communism."

"We all realize that this is the continuing design and constant effort of our nation's adversaries to suck down America's prestige in an undertow of hate and suspicion and malice," he said.

"... As we deplore these tactics abroad, so we must guard ourselves against those unthinking fellows among us who would poison our own system by using these same tactics at home."

Johnson said public service in the U. S. had been distinguished for its integrity and if the nation is to maintain its world prestige it must continue to produce—and support—the same kind of leadership.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Vice President Lyndon Johnson apparently had recovered from a cold and sore throat today. He went on a motor tour of this resort city before a scheduled address to the Arkansas Bar Association this afternoon.

The vice president retired to his hotel room last night after taking a thermal bath. His press secretary, Charles Boatner, said he took another thermal bath this morning and was feeling much better.

Johnson was hoarse and suffering from a cold when he arrived Wednesday from Colorado Springs, Boatner said. He retired early.

With him on the motor tour were Sen. J. William Fulbright and Gene Matthews of Hot Springs, chairman of the Bar Association reception committee.

First Tomatoes Bring $260 Basket

HERMITAGE, Ark. (AP) — The first basket of pink tomatoes sold on the Hermitage market Wednesday brought a price of $260.

They were grown by Jack Scoby of Ingalls and sold to C. C. Gunn of Van Buren. Several other baskets were sold at premium prices.

The first basket of pink tomatoes at Warren were sold for $130 last week.

The Hermitage market is expected to open officially next week.

U. S. Health Dept. to Look Into Smoking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Surgeon General Luther L. Terry announced today he is naming a committee to study the evidence as to whether smoking has any impact on health. The committee is to make any appropriate recommendations.

Terry's action was understood to have the approval of the White House. Informal sources said earlier in the week that a Public Health Service recommendation for such a panel had been forwarded to the White House.

President Kennedy brushed aside at his last news conference a question as to his views on whether smoking causes lung cancer. He said he did not want to say anything about that controversy until he could obtain complete information.

Terry issued the following statement:

"It is timely to undertake a comprehensive review of all available data.

"I have, therefore, decided to appoint an expert advisory committee to study the evidence, evaluate it, and make whatever recommendations may be appropriate.

"This advisory group will be made up of a panel of experts selected after consultation with federal agencies concerned, non-governmental professional groups, health organizations, and the tobacco industry.

"Membership of the advisory committee will be announced when the panel is completed."

The Health Service's official position on smoking and lung cancer has not been changed since November 1959.

At that time, Dr. Leroy E. Burney, then the surgeon-general, concluded that the weight of evidence implicated smoking as the principal causative factor in the increase of lung cancer.

The tobacco industry contends there has been no proof which links smoking to lung cancer. The industry is financing research which it says is aimed at determining the facts.

Two to Peace Corps

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP) — Margaret La France Stanford and Thomas J. Pillar of Dermott have been accepted into the Peace Corps and will be assigned to training centers. Both are graduates of Arkansas A&M college at Pine Bluff. Miss Stanford is a health and physical education major and Pillar studied agricultural chemistry.

Foreign Aid Bill Hits Snag, Tax Revision Measure in Trouble

Chance Bill to Be Dropped Eventually

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's tax revision bill appeared in deeper trouble today after being criticized sharply at a closed meeting of Democratic senators.

Opponents of the bill said privately they were convinced now there was a good chance it eventually will be dropped. And Republicans voiced such a demand in floor speeches Wednesday.

However, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., who opposes the measure's two key provisions, told a reporter the Finance Committee he heads will continue its consideration of the tax bill.

It was learned the Virginian told Kennedy a few days ago the measure would receive a complete study from his group.

The committee has been giving the bill a slow-motion airing since it started public hearings April 2. The House passed the measure March 29, keeping the bulk of Kennedy's proposals.

Wednesday's Democratic meeting was in the office of the party's Senate leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana. It was one of the periodic sessions he holds to go over the Senate program and to relay the results of congressional leaders' conferences with President Kennedy.

The tax bill in general was the chief subject of the meeting, with investment credit to give business a $1.35 billion incentive to modernize its plant and equipment.

The administration believes the credit would go a long way toward making the economy more efficient and productive.

The withholding plan is counted on to help pay for the investment credit.

It was learned that Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., second in seniority on the Democratic side of the Finance Committee, led off at the meeting with a defense of the withholding plan. He emphasized the present tax losses from unreported dividend and interest income.

Byrd then gave a rebuttal, stating continued on Page Two

McClellan Votes With Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan voted for an amendment to the foreign aid authorization bill, banning aid to any communist dominated country.

The amendment, authored by Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, passed 57-24.

Millwood Meet at Nashville

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Plans for the recreational development of the Millwood Dam reservoir area will be discussed at a five-county meeting in Nashville July 27. Preliminary construction has been started on the dam. Formal groundbreaking ceremonies are set June 17.

Committee Delays Estes Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House subcommittee delayed resuming its hearings on the Billie Sol Estes case today, and argued instead over whether to fire Robert E. Manuel, a staff attorney.

Manuel, counsel to Republican members of the subcommittee, drew the wrath of Democrats by allegedly leaking a secret Agriculture Department report on the Estes case to the New York Herald Tribune last week.

At 10:30 a.m. — when public hearings were scheduled to begin — Chairman L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., and Republican members were closeted in his office.

Manuel came out of the session about 11 a.m., but wouldn't say anything except that an executive session was being held and "I'll be after that."

A little later, Fountain left his office.

"I have no authority to hire or fire Mr. Manuel," he said in response to questions about whether the Republican counsel had been fired.

He declined to comment on the subject but said he expected the hearings would continue.

Arriving in the House Caucus Room, where the public sessions had been scheduled, Fountain announced there would be a delay in the start while the whole committee held an executive session.

Fountain and the other Democratic members of the committee, Reps. Ross B. Bass of Tennessee and Neal Smith of Iowa, then left the room to join the two Republican members, Reps. Florence Dwyer of New Jersey and Odin Langen of Minnesota who had remained in Fountain's office.

Going into the closed session, Bass made it plain he was insisting on dismissal of Manuel.

"Either he does or I go and I don't plan to leave," Bass told reporters.

The scheduled witness for the public hearings was James T. Ralph, a former assistant secretary of agriculture fired for using Estes' telephone credit card for his own calls.

Unemployment Dips, Says ESD

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Employment Security Division said Wednesday unemployment in Arkansas continued to drop sharply in May.

J. L. Bland, administrator, said an average of 13,635 persons filed claims for unemployment insurance during May. This is 6,237 below the May average of 19,872.

Bland said the claimants represented 5.1 per cent of the total Arkansas workers covered by unemployment insurance. The rate of unemployment in May was down from 7.7 per cent during May of 1961.

Bland said a total of $1,012,397 was paid out in unemployment insurance benefits during May. This was 32 per cent below the $1,499,091 paid out during May, 1961. He attributed the sharp drop to fewer layoffs, more job openings and seasonal increases in agricultural hirings.

Allotment Made

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A $36,500 allotment has been made by the Federal Aviation Agency to the Fort Smith municipal airport to acquire 40 acres north of the north-south runway. Part of the money will be used for paving of a private plane hangar ramp. The $36,500 will be added to a previous allotment of $23,000 and will be matched by local funds.

Votes No Cash for Nations Ruled by Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — George W. Ball, under secretary of state today blasted the proposed denial of American aid to Communist satellite countries as a cold war "no win policy."

Ball stopped just short of mentioning the Senate's action Wednesday in amending the foreign aid bill to forbid aid to any Communist-ruled country, such as Yugoslavia and Poland. He told a special Senate Armed Services subcommittee:

"If we are not going to offer these people hope, then I submit, Mr. Chairman, we are not following a (cold war) win policy, but a no win policy."

Ball thus threw back at critics the charge they had made that the administration is following a "no win" policy.

Obviously with the Senate's action in mind, Ball referred to the foreign aid situation as he resumed testimony in the subcommittee investigation of charges by Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., that the administration muzzles anti-Communist military men and has a "no win" policy.

He said he wanted to "discuss the meaning of a 'win policy'."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk already had described as "most unfortunate" the Senate's adoption of an amendment banning aid to Communist countries under the $4.7 billion foreign aid authorization bill.

The aid restriction still to be considered by the House is aimed directly at Yugoslavia and Poland, the two Communist nations which receive U.S. help.

The administration takes the view that by assisting the two it acts to weaken them away from domination by the Soviet Union. But the amendment's author, Sen. Frank Lausche, D-Ohio, declared in Wednesday's debate that any aid granted to a Communist country "can never be in the interest of the security of the United States—it can only be in the interest of the promulgation of international communism."

The Lausche amendment passed by a 57-24 vote when 34 Democrats turned a deaf ear to a White House plea and sided with 23 Republicans. Voting with the administration were 18 Democrats and 6 Republicans.

If accepted by the House, which continued on Page Two

Hot Springs Youth Heads Boy's State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — David Zorub, 17, of Hot Springs, was named Governor of Boys State Wednesday night at Camp Robinson.

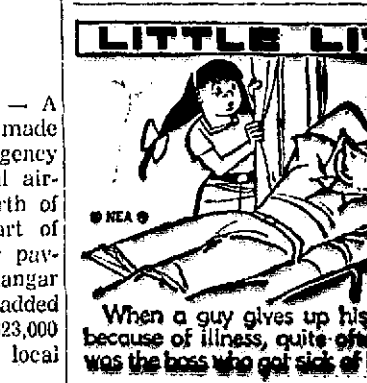

Zorub, a native of Lebanon, will be a senior at Hot Springs high school this fall. He has been in the United States eight years.

Associate Justice Neill Bohlinger of the state Supreme Court will administer oaths of office to Zorub and other officials of mythical political divisions elected at the event.

A joint session of the group's general assembly will follow. Gov. Orval E. Faubus will speak at a special assembly, then Zorub will name department heads.

Constitutional officers elected are Harsell Winfield of Little Rock, lieutenant governor; Jim Cole of Magnolia, secretary of state; Paul Estes of Arkadelphia, attorney general.

Also, Gerald Fong of Marianna, treasurer; Lane Strother of North Little Rock, auditor; J. D. McClure of Dermott, land commissioner; Ronnie Jackson of Fort Smith, chief justice.

Fired Farm Dept. Aide to Be Witness

WASHINGTON (AP) — James T. Ralph, ousted agriculture Department aide, takes the witness stand today, as a House subcommittee resumes its hearings on the Billie Sol Estes case after a week's pause.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., is investigating how Estes built up a huge grain storage empire. It and other elements of the Texas operator's holdings have collapsed amid charges of fraud and theft.

William Morris, another dismissed Agriculture Department aide, will follow Ralph to the stand Friday, it was learned.

Next week the subcommittee is expected to start calling executives of the Commercial Solvents Co., the firm which bankrolled Estes' over-extended dealings in liquid fertilizer in West Texas.

Ralph, 36, came to Washington with the Kennedy administration from an agricultural job in California and was appointed assistant secretary of agriculture.

When the Estes scandal broke Ralph volunteered to testify before a Texas court of inquiry about trying on expensive suits in a Dallas department store in Estes' company. He told the court Estes hadn't bought him the suits though he conceded a tailor marked them for alteration.

Ralph was retained a while, but Secretary Orville L. Freeman fired him May 15, saying Ralph had used a telephone credit card belonging to Estes to charge personal long distance phone calls.

Wildlife Fish Fry Saturday Night at 7

The Hempstead County Wildlife Association will hold its annual fish fry Saturday night in the Fair park coliseum. A fish supper will be served from 7 until 8 o'clock for all members and their immediate families. Wives of members are asked to bring a cake or pie.

Members who have membership card books out are urged to turn them in by Saturday to C. P. Rettig, Dub Flowers or Harry Hawthorne. Two prizes on display at Duffie Hardware Co. will be awarded. First prize of a 30-30 Winchester deer rifle and a Zebco Rod and Reel is second prize.

Since the organization of the Hempstead County Wildlife Association in 1958, the principle project has been the formation and completion of the Bois d'Arc lake and game reservation. This project is now complete and will develop into one of Arkansas best fishing and hunting areas. There will be an official dedication of this lake at later date.

Members of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission will be special guest of the Wildlife Association Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Mason
61, a Teacher,

Big Party Results From Plane Crash

ROCKVILLE CENTER, N. Y.
(AP) — Perry Grant is having a little cocktail Sunday for his close friends.

The police have been notified.
The driveway has been closed for dancing. The caterer has been alerted. The champagne has been ordered. And the bands have been engaged.

The wealthy bachelor expects more than 800 guests for the event at his sumptuous estate on Long Island.

It all began three weeks ago when Grant, 25, escaped injury as his plane crashed in a Maryland Swamp. He got to thinking how lucky he was to have escaped.

"I decided to have some close friends in to help me celebrate being alive," Grant recalls. "But the word spread and now they're coming from all parts of the country."

Grant's family amassed a fortune in investments and the operation of a court stenography service, of which Grant now is general manager.

Grant said he notified local police in order to assure that the party is kept orderly and free

Karam Delays Trip to Bring Back Negroes

By BILL SIMMONS

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James T.
Karam said today he would wait word from a Unitarian minister in Hyannis, Mass., before he leaves Little Rock to bring home deserted Negroes sent north by the segregationist Capital Citizens Council.

Karam, a white Little Rock clothing store owner, formed a group called
"We Who Care" and said he would bring the Negroes back and help find support for them if they wished to return.

He said he had asked the Rev.
Kenneth Warren of the Barnstable Unitarian Church to ask the Negroes if they wished to return to Little Rock. The Citizens Council has sent 35 Negroes to Hyannis on "reverse freedom rides."

Karam said he expected a telegram from Warren today. Karam was scheduled to leave for Hyannis at noon.

Karam, 49, said We Who Care was organized to provide understanding and spiritual guidance to migrant workers, former inmates of penal institutions, detention homes and psychiatric hospitals.

During the 1957 Little Rock integration crisis, Karam was a friend to Gov. Orval E. Faubus and was in the crowds at Central High School when violence erupted.
He said he went there because he had children in school.

In 1959, Karam called a news conference and announced he had been converted to Christianity. He has been an active Baptist layman since then.

Faubus appointed him to the state Bank Commission last month.

Of his activities during the integration crisis, Karam said "I was just a citizen. I don't know how I felt about integration or segregation then. I don't know that I felt anything. But I know this now: Jesus Christ is the only answer to either problem."

"Because of his saving grace, I am extending my hand to help these poor unfortunates, these riders and any unfortunates. That is the one and only reason," he said.

Nixon, Brown Have Work All Cut Out

By MORRIS LANDSBERG

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gov.
Edmund G. Brown and Richard
M. Nixon have their work cut out for them in primary election results still accumulating today.

The Democratic governor's immediate job was to decide whether he'll call a special session of the legislature to resubmit defeated state bond issues to the November ballot.

Brown said he would announce his decision within a few days.
Nixon's obvious assignment was to try and unite the Republican party behind his candidacy for governor. He expressed confidence GOP regulars and conservatives would patch up their differences.

Nixon, who defeated conservative Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell of Los Angeles by 2 to 1 in the GOP gubernatorial primary, outlined plans for a harmony meeting with party leaders and candidates soon.

Shell, the choice of 35 per cent of the Republican voters, telegraphed his congratulations to Nixon Wednesday. But again he hedged on planting his banner in Nixon's camp.

"We can win in November only if we stand firm without compromising our principles," he said.

Nixon called the primary vote
a mandate from California Republicans to move ahead with a program of "progressive conservatism." He hailed the Republican ticket as "the strongest and best balanced in many years."

With 22,836 of 31,212 statewide precincts reporting, Nixon had 891,766, Shell 470,006.

Brown's total from 22,738 precincts climbed to 1,248,760 to maintain his 7 to 1 margin over rice allotment the suit would be filed in federal court.

Weir has been engaged in a running battle with the government over acreage controls and has lost his 955-acre farm in a federal action auction to pay a $16,972 overplanting penalty.

Secretary Freeman said Wednesday he doesn't intend to open the Chicago County ASC records on rice allotments.

Weir claims the government has not used regulation methods of measuring rice for allotments.
A previous appeal to open the ASC book was rejected on grounds of "insufficiency." The review board's decision was expected in about two weeks.

GOPs Declare Principles, Attack JFK

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional Republicans approved today a declaration of party principles for this year's election campaigns and coupled it with a broadside attack on Kennedy administration domestic and foreign policies.

The 2,500-word statement called for a thorough overhaul of the tax system, without specifically mentioning tax reduction, and for "a new direction for public policy in order to advance the cause of freedom at home and throughout the world."

Firing directly at President
Kennedy, the Republicans said:
"The oft-heard campaign cry
'Get America Moving Again' has become a hollow echo."

The statement, entitled "A Declaration of Republican Principle and Policy," also said:

"The current administration has shown little understanding of, or concern for, institutions that buttress freedom at home—separation of the powers, checks and balances, state and local responsibility, and a free competitive economy."

"It has demonstrated neither the wit nor the will to meet effectively the assault of international communism on freedom."

"We Republicans cannot with-ness the erosion of freedom without warning or protest."

The Republicans asserted that the overriding issue before the American electors in 1962 is:

"Which party acts more effectively to preserve and enlarge human freedom?"

Offering GOP alternatives in broad, non-detailed outline the statement attacked Kennedy administration actions and policy across a broad range of specific points. The list of targets ran from such matters as medical care for the aged and the injection of government into labor-management affairs, to the handling of the Berlin crisis and the decisions which the Republicans said permitted establishment of a Communist military base in Cuba 90 miles from the Florida coast.

The document is intended as a handbook for the 1962 congressional election campaigns.

It was drafted by a 12-member Senate-House committee after consultation with party leaders which included former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Rep. Melvin Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the committee, made public the document after it had been submitted to and approved by caucuses of Senate and House Republican members.

Tournament Is Underway

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Little Rock players who teamed up to win the doubles title in the 1961 Crossett Open Junior tennis tournament will be top contenders in the singles events of this year's meet.

They are Bill Hayes and Murray Harding. The tournament opens Friday.

Two young Mississippi men are expected to give them tough competition. They are Buddy Rogers of Laurel and Barry Crosby of Greenville. Crosby is Mississippi state champion.

Players are entered from Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Georgia. Finals in the Southern Lawn Tennis Association event are Sunday.

5 More Riders Headed for Resort Area

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP) — Five more Negro "reverse freedom riders" are headed for this Cap-Cod resort community four miles from President Kennedy's summer home.

The latest five left Montgomery, Ala., Wednesday night. Each was given a one-way bus ticket and $5 by the Montgomery County Citizens Council. They are scheduled to arrive in Hyannis Friday.

Ahead of them were 53 Negroes sent to Hyannis by southern segregationists, most of them from Little Rock.

James T. Karam, a Little Rock clothing store owner, a movement called "We Who Care," said he would leave for Hyannis today to offer aid to two Negro mothers and the 20 children in their two families.

Karam, who is white, announced in Little Rock that his movement seeks funds to show the Negro riders that their home state does care about them.

He said he has received offers to provide $20 a month for each of the children and job opportunities for the mothers. In addition, he said, offers have been received to seek housing for the families.
Meanwhile, town officials arranged to move 39 of the migrants, including 33 children, to National Guard barracks at Camp Edwards, an inactive military post near Otis
Air Force Base, Falmouth.

Selectman E. Thomas Murphy said the Negroes will be moved within the next few days. They have been housed temporarily in a community college dormitory at Hyannis but the dormitory is needed for a summer session beginning June 11.

The town of Barnstable, of which Hyannis is a village, will continue to support the group.

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH

"What would you say if I told you
I had found a way to make milk safe and keep it sweet a long, long time?"

In June, over 100 years ago, Gail Borden invented a process to do just that. And people soon found that his product was always safe... safe for babies and for grownups alike. Often considered too fussy about sanitation, Borden knew the importance of cleanliness and he kept insisting on it. He even went out to the farms and showed dairymen how to care for their herds and the milk they produced. He counselled with them on the care and feeding of their cows and how to bring in the milk to his factory. His rigid requirements later became a "Dairman's Ten Commandments." These formed the basis of health department regulations as we now know them. We, today, take very seriously our responsibility to follow in his footsteps to see that all legal requirements are met and surpassed. That's why everything Borden's makes is better than it has to be.

Ice cream, strawberries, and cookies were served during the refreshment hour.

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Lloyd Guerin's home was the setting for a bridge club meeting on Tuesday evening, June 5. Petunias and cape jasmine blossoms decorated the home where two tables of players gathered.

These included one guest, Mrs. Bill Tolleson.

When scores were tallied, Mrs. Jud Martindale was high. Mrs. Wayne Russell won both the prize for second high and the prize for the game. A salad plate with coffee were served for refreshments.

Young Couples Class Have Social

The Young Couples Class at the First Christian Church had a social at Fair Park on Tuesday, June 5. Twenty-seven enjoyed the picnic which included hot dogs and all the trimmings. Rev. Clyde Goddard offered the invocation before the meal was served.

After supper, a fellowship hour followed. Those attending the outing were: Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Renfro and son, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Williams and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Shields, Jr., and children, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gates and sons of Bodcaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marek and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dunn and daughters, and Miss Susan Pritchett of Prairie Grove.

Orr—Ward Wedding Is Solemnized

On Sunday, June 3 at 3 p. m. at the Southside Baptist Church Miss Ineta Orr, daughter of Mrs. B. A. Orr and the late Mr. Orr, and Billy Ward, son of Mrs. E. J. Ward of Tulsa, Tex., and the late Mr. Ward, were united in holy matrimony.

The double ceremony was performed by Rev. Norman Grant in a setting of white stocks and greenery. Mrs. Carl Orr of Vivian, La., sister-in-law of the bride, furnished the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Carl, of Vivian, La. She wore a white, street-length dress of lace and chiffon. It was fashioned with a rounded neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt. With it the bride wore lace mitts, a pearl necklace and matching ear bobs. On a white Bible she pinned white rosebuds centered with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Eddie Haynes of Nashville cousin of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore a pink dress with a net overskirt. The bandeau in her hair was white as were her accessories. She carried a bouquet of roses centered with an orchid.

The bridegroom chose Eddie Haynes of Nashville for his best man. Ushers were Kenneth and Wayne Grant.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Orr was attired in a navy dress with jewelry, and accessories of white. She pinned white carnations at her shoulder.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother. Pink roses and greenery were used for decoration. In the receiving line were the wedding couple and her mother, Mrs. Orr.

The tiered wedding cake trimmed with pink roses was on a table laid with a white lace cloth over pink. The cake and fruit punch were served by Misses Penny Franks and Jan Reinhardt. Also assisting in serving were Mrs. Sam Watson of Arkadelphia, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Carl Orr of Vivian, La. Miss Norma Orr of El Dorado niece of the bride, had charge of the bride's book.

After a short wedding trip, the couple is now at home at 200 West 8th St. in Hope.

Rift in the Lute

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband has always known that he is not the father of my son. He accepts the fact and is kindness itself to the boy and me.

We married when the child was small and have since had five little girls of our own. My son believes he is their real brother. As a family we are very happy. No love could be deeper or more sincere than mine for my husband.

Yet for me there is a rift in the lute.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Moss have had as guests, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Mitchell, Terry and Michael of Phenix City, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. James W. Guppli and Richard, Mrs. Myrtle Boren Scottie and Kelly White of Kansas City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Westrope of Ada, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Westrope of Oklahoma City, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Rosenbaum and son Randy of Kansas City, Mo. and Claudie W. Rosenbaum of Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. "Son" Jones of Dallas, Tex., have been visiting relatives and friends in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Walters of Ft. Smith has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wright, but has now enrolled at summer school at TCU.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pritchett, Jacklyn and Susan of Prairie Grove have been the guests recently of her mother, Mrs. H. O. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kiffinger of Ft. Worth, Tex., were here this weekend to see Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ponder.

Robert Gates left Sunday for the Christian Youth Fellowship Conference at Clear Springs Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ponder had as their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ponder, Jr., and family of Sulphur Springs, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ponder and family of Houston, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ponder and son of Little Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitworth left Tuesday to drive to St. Petersburg, Fla., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirk and to see Frank, Jr., graduate from high school Friday night.

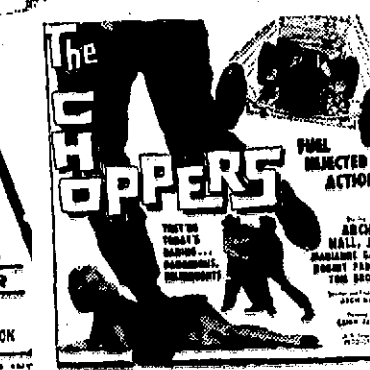

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Walters and children of Pasadena, Tex., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walters, this weekend en route to Baton Rouge, La., where Jimmy will attend summer school on a National Science Foundation Fellowship for teachers.

TWO JOHN WAYNE BIG HITS

lute. My husband refuses to adopt my son legally. The boy is a dear, lovable youngster; manly, open-faced and eager to do his part.

I would give my right arm to save him any heartache. The reason I say that and am writing this letter is he wants to join the Little League. When I took him to sign the necessary papers, he asked for his birth certificate. I didn't have one! No one in our town knows the truth of the situation, least of all he. While going by my husband's name he has no legal right to it. Fear of him finding this out and, as a consequence, suffering, haunts me day and night. He is 9. Must I forever pay for the one big mistake of my life? Should I get down on my knees and beg my husband to take pity on us? Or am I to keep my mouth shut and pray that no one will ever learn the truth? These questions go around and around in my head until I'm near crazy.

Dear Heartbroken: Your husband may give you a variety of reasons for not wishing to adopt your son—all but the real one, which is fundamental. When he says no, he is saying louder than words, he is jealous of the father in your son; fearful that in your heart of hearts you still love the other man.

Dispel those hidden fears by showing your love in a thousand and one little ways. Tell him that any memory of this man who passed so fleetingly through your life has been completely obliterated by him; that he alone is the center of the universe for you and your boy.

Once convinced, his mind will be more open to adoption of the boy. Let the suggestion come from him. Spark it by asking him to check on the boy's status in the Little League. Stay in the background. Give him a chance to chum with your son—away from you. Praise the boy to him, praise him to your son. And, once the father-son bond is evident, tell your boy the truth about himself.

But do it with the help of your husband. If your husband is the man he seems to be, he will then make the adoption legal on paper as it already is in his heart.

Dear Helen: After seven years of marriage, my husband has slowly drifted into alcoholism. The whole thing was so gradual that I did not realize it until his boss phoned. He had been absent from the office two days straight when I thought him out of town on company business.

With the help of a friend we found him sleeping it off in a cheap motel. He resented my interference and defies me by repeats of the same, often leaving me without food and money.

Our three small children share this miserable life of mine. When I go to his or my relatives for help, they smugly say, "This is strictly your problem—not ours."

—Despairing Wife

Dear Despairing: Cold-blooded

though your relatives may seem, they are right. To call in outside reinforcements, especially relatives, would be fatal for all concerned.

Your husband has to find the road back himself. Check in the telephone directory for the address of the nearest Alcoholics Anonymous group. Tell them your problem and ask for literature. Put their pamphlets where your husband will see them. Say nothing.

He may scoff but, when he hits rock bottom, will read them. The sooner you two get the idea that alcoholism is a disease, not a moral issue, the better able you will be to cope with it. Tell your husband a physical check-up is essential. If money is a problem, see that he goes to a clinic.

Dear Helen: I am an old fool who falls for a pretty face. And when I say "fall" I mean it—straight to hell. My wife, poor long-suffering soul, calls it "the sillies." Maybe I never should have married, since I couldn't be constant if I tried. Is there any hope for me?—Roving

Dear Roving: Yes. See prolonged infidelity for what it is—a habit just as taking dope is a habit. In both instances the victim was originally escaping from something. Ask yourself what you were escaping from. When you married you must have been in love. Assume a virtue, if you have it not. Behave as if you are in love with your wife until the pretense again becomes a reality.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this

Dodgers Take Pair, Near League Lead

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Operation overhaul has moved into its second stage for the Los Angeles Dodgers, tearing toward the top again in that two-team struggle for supremacy in the National League.

Reeling off their second victory streak in an attempt to catch front-running San Francisco, the Dodgers upped their latest string to four games by winning a pair from Pittsburgh Wednesday night—8-3 in the completion of Tuesday's suspended game and 5-3 in the regulation contest.

The Giants, who have held first place since April 30, lost to the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

St. Louis dropped third-place Cincinnati 7 1/2 games back by edging the Reds, 4-3. Milwaukee beat Houston 6-3 and Philadelphia extended the Mets' losing skid to 17, sweeping a two-nighter 2-0 and 2-1.

In the American League, New York took over first place and dropped Cleveland to second with a 5-0 triumph over the Indians. Minnesota regained third by blanking Kansas City 7-0. The Los Angeles Angels nipped Chicago's White Sox 1-0. Washington edged Baltimore 2-1 and Boston and Detroit split. The Red Sox won a day game 2-1 and the Tigers took a nighter 3-2 in 11 innings.

The Dodgers snapped a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning of the regulation game on Ron Fairly's two-run homer off Joe Gibbon (0-1) in the eighth. The Pirates chased rookie Joe Moeller (4-4) in the ninth with two walks and a single. Ed Roebuck yielded a run on Dick Stuart's single before Ron Ferraro came on to get the final out.

In the one-inning windup of the suspended game, the Dodgers tacked on a run while Sany Koufax set the Pirates down in order to preserve the victory for Don Drysdale (9-3). Bob Friend (5-7) was the loser.

Giants reliever Don Larsen (3-1) walked four consecutive Cub batters in the ninth, giving the last free pass to Don Landrum to break a 3-3 tie as Lou Brock crossed with the winner. Dick Ellsworth (4-7) went the distance for the victory.

Red Schoendienst' pinch-hit single drove in the run that snapped a 2-2 tie in the seventh and the Cards added the clincher against the Reds in the eighth on a single by Stan Musial and three walks by Joey Jay (8-5). Larry Jackson (5-6) went the route for the victory.

Making his first start since April 29 for Milwaukee, Lew Burdette allowed a dozen hits. An eight-hit attack was enough to beat the Colts. Jim Golden (3-3) was the loser.

Tight pitching won both games for the Phils with Cal McLish (5-1) grabbing the opener with a seven-hitter and Art Mahaffey (6-7) nailing the nightcap with a four-hitter. In the first game, Roger Craig (2-8) took the loss. Wes Covington tagged Al Jackson (2-7) with the second game defeat when he lashed a pinch-hit single to score Bob Oldis in the ninth and break a 1-1 deadlock.

Strikeouts—Pascual, Minnesota, 69; Terry, New York, 62.

Major League Stars

Pitching—Ralph Terry, Yankees, posted first shutout of year, allowing only four hits, striking out 10 and retiring 16 men in order at one stretch in 5-9 victory over Cleveland that sent New York into American League lead.

Batting—Joe Hicks, Senators, tripled and scored first run in seventh inning, then provided margin for 2-1 victory over Baltimore with ninth inning homer.

Face value of money in circulation in the U. S. on June 30, 1961, totaled $124,944,555, according to 1961 Britannica Book of the Year.

Terry Turning in Best Hurling for Yankees

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

American League pitchers, hit unmercifully in that record home run barrage of last year, seem to be coming back into their own.

Pitching certainly was the key Wednesday with star performers ranging from Ralph Terry of New York to front-running Yankees to Claude Osteen of Washington's last-place Senators.

Terry turned in a four-hitter as the Yankees broke their first-place deadlock with Cleveland, beating the Indians 5-0. Jim Kaat pitched a five-hit shutout for Minnesota in a 7-0 victory that pushed the Twins into third.

Jim Bunning went 11 strong innings in Detroit's 3-2 decision over Boston for a split of their day-night doubleheader. The Red Sox shaded the Tigers in the afternoon game 2-1 on Bill Monbouquette's pitching and Frank Malzone's ninth inning homer.

Ken McBride again proved a jinx against his former club, outdueling Ray Herbert as the Los Angeles Angels edged the Chicago White Sox 1-0. And Osteen and the Senators beat Baltimore 2-1.

In the National League—Chicago knocked off first-place San Francisco 4-3; Los Angeles moved to within a half game of the lead, completing an 8-3 victory over Pittsburgh in their suspended game of Tuesday night, then downing the Pirates again, 5-3; St. Louis got by Cincinnati 4-3; Milwaukee clouted Houston 6-3; and Philadelphia extended New York's losing string to 17, clipping the Mets 2-0 and 2-1.

Terry, now 7-4, struck out 10 and put down 16 Indians in order during one stretch. The lean right-hander issued just one walk.

The Yankees were checked on three hits by Jim (Mudcat) Grant until the sixth; when back-to-back homers by Roger Maris and John Blanchard gave them control.

The Twins took command early, rapping A's ace Jerry Walker for eight hits and six runs before chasing him in the fourth.

In Detroit's overtime squeaker against Boston the Tigers pushed across the winner in the eleventh against reliever Dick Radatz on Norm Macauliffe's single and Dick Berry's bunt hit.

Sections of Nation Hit by Rain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers and thunderstorms hit scattered sections from Wyoming to New England and in parts of the South again today but generally fair weather prevailed in the Far West.

Wet weather was reported in many areas during the night, with severe thunderstorms in sections of the Plains. Tornado winds, heavy rain and hail hit some areas.

A heavy downpour drenched Goodland, Kan. with amounts reported up to four inches. Some flooding was reported. Hail was reported two to three inches deep in a mile wide strip 10 miles south of Goodland.

A tornado struck northeast of Amarillo, Tex., but no damage was reported. A twister also hit the Polk, Neb., area, about 80 miles west of Omaha, in the wake of a severe thunderstorm.

Showers and thunderstorms continued during the morning from central Wyoming into southeastern Texas. Showers sprinkled areas in West Virginia, western South Carolina, Southern New England, North Dakota and Minnesota. Rain fell in the Middle Mississippi Valley and showery weather also was reported in parts of the Ohio and Tennessee Valleys, and the Gulf and South Atlantic Coast states.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 85 in Needles, Calif. to 36 in Rock Springs, Wyo. Readings were in the 60s and 70s in most of the Mississippi Valley and in the 50s and 60s in the Pacific Coast region.

Miller Too Old for Appeals Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Judge John E. Miller said Wednesday Atty. Gen. Edward F. Kennedy has ruled out his eligibility for a seat on the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, because of his age.

Miller, 74, federal district judge for western Arkansas, was one of the candidates for the seat on the court, which has been vacant since Jan. 1, 1961.

Speculation was that the matter would come before the Arkansas council.

Bar Association at its annual convention in Hot Springs today. Miller said Kennedy had decided not to recommend him for the post because he did not want to waive his rule of age 70 as a retirement mark for those in judicial posts.

Miller was 74 May 15.

"My interests now is in seeing that a qualified man from Arkansas within the age limits is recommended for the Court of Appeals," Miller said. "I hope this can be done immediately so that Arkansas will not lose the vote."

Two Secret Army Killers Executed

By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP)—Two Secret Army killers were executed at dawn today—the first to be sent before a firing squad—but ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud remained in the death row he had shared with them.

The fate of Jouhaud, 57, deputy commander of the underground terrorist army, still rested with President De Gaulle. There was an indication De Gaulle would spare his life.

The first executions came a few hours after the Secret Army in a pirate broadcast in Algiers reported a deadlock in its talks with the Moslem nationalists and said, "We are again taking up war—particularly in the economic field."

The broadcast advised women, children and older Europeans to leave Algeria to "free the man for the scorched earth campaign."

Southeast of Paris at Fort Du Trou D'Enfer (Hell Hole Fort) rifle volleys followed by two pistol shots—the customary coups de grace—rang out at 4:12 a.m. They brought death to Albert Dovecar, 37, a former sergeant in the Foreign Legion and Claude Piegts, 27, a civilian.

They had been convicted of slaying a police commissioner in Algiers on March 31, 1961.

Dovecar and Piegts refused blindfolds as they faced the firing squad.

"Aim at the heart!" shouted Piegts. Just before the shots rang out, he cried: "Vive l'Algerie Francaise" (long live French Algeria).

"Vive l'Autriche (Austria)!" "Vive la Legion!" shouted Dovecar.

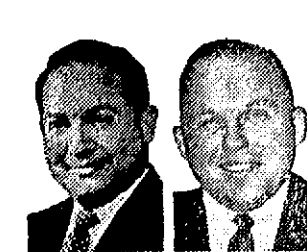

The bodies were buried in nearby Thiais Cemetery.

Dovecar was a native of Yugoslavia and lived in Austria before joining the Foreign Legion in 1957. Piegts was an insurance agent in Algiers.

The two Secret Army killers were brought to the fort under heavy guard during the night from Fresnes Prison in Paris, where Jouhaud also is held. There was no advance announcement of who was being executed, and rumors spread that Jouhaud had faced the firing squad.

Jouhaud's lawyer, Yves Perrussel, spiked the rumors. Under French law the lawyer for a condemned man must be present at his execution and Perrussel was reached at his home after the rifle volleys cracked out.

"You see, I'm still here," he told a reporter. "It was not Jouhaud."

U of A Yearbook Editors Sued

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Larry Dum, a reporter for the Northwest Arkansas Times, filed a $25,000 libel suit in Washington Circuit Court today against the editor and the publisher of the University of Arkansas yearbook.

Dum alleged that disparaging remarks were made about him in the book, the Razorback, published this spring.

The editor named in the suit was Edmund L. Dohoney, a student at the university. The publisher listed was Louis Hurley of the Hurley Printing Co., Camden.

Dum asked $10,000 compensatory damages, $10,000 actual damages, and $5,000 punitive damages.

Dum was a student at the University until last February.

Primaries Over Nation at a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here's a rundown of Tuesday's primary elections and nominating conventions:

California—Former vice president Richard M. Nixon mounted a better than 2-1 lead over conservative oilman Joseph C. Shell to win Republican nomination for governor of California; his No. 1 opponent, Gov. Edmund G. Brown, swamped three foes for a Democratic nomination to a second term; Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel easily overcame opposition of two conservatives for nomination to another term.

Connecticut—Republican state nominating convention picked insurance company executive John Alsop to run for governor on unprecedented eighth ballot early today. A state-wide primary may be demanded by the loser.

Mississippi—Rep. Jamie Whitfield ousted Rep. Frank Smith in contest matching two Democratic colleagues for same seat.

South Dakota—Sen. Francis Case easily won Republican nomination for third term.

Idaho—Gov. Robert E. Smylie won Republican nomination for third term while Vernon K. Smith, advocate of legalized gambling, held a big lead in Democratic gubernatorial primary; John T. Hawley won Republican nomination to oppose Sen. Frank Church, who had no Democratic opposition in bid for second term.

Montana—Republican Wayne Montgomery ar Democrat Leo Graybill Jr. won primaries to choose Novemb. opponents for Rep. Arnold Olsen, Democrat, and Rep. James F. Battin, Republican, both unopposed Tuesday.

Benjamin Franklin predicted development of air conditioning nearly 150 years before Willis H. Carrier invented it in 1902.

Arkansas Lions to Europe Meet

The members were accompanied by their wives. The group was to fly by chartered plane to Toronto, Canada, where they will board a British jet airliner for Europe.

Heading the Arkansas delegation was Edward Barry Jr., of Little Rock, a past president of Lions International.

The group will tour Germany, Italy, Great Britain and France before attending the convention at June 20 at Nice, France. They are to return late this month.

Industrialist Denies Big Profits

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Industrialist Arthur H. Bunker denied today his Climax Molybdenum Co. reaped a big "windfall" profit through cancellation of its contract to sell molybdenum to the government's defense stockpile.

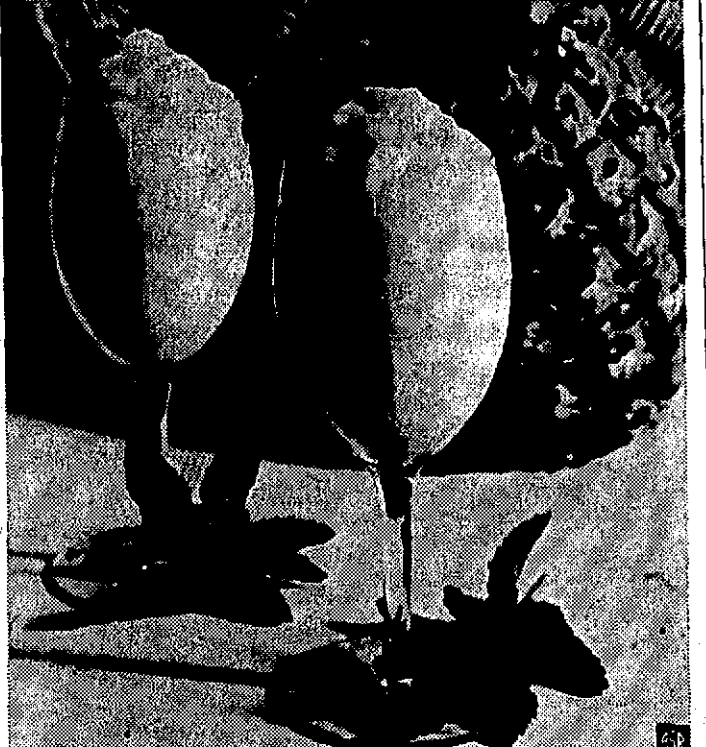

"On the contrary, the government drove a very hard bargain," Bunker told a special Senate Armed Services subcommittee, whose chairman, Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., contends the taxpayers are losing more than $1 billion on various stockpile deals.

Launching today's hearing, Symington declared there can be "few parallels in comparable mismanagement in the history of this government," to match those exposed thus far in his investigation.

Bunker swore he never knew that Dr. James P. Morgan, a consultant employed by Climax, also was a consultant to the government on stockpile matters.

Actually, Bunker added as he read from a prepared statement, Morgan "did not in any way act for or advise the government" in connection with cancellation of the molybdenum contract, which permitted the company to sell its pro-

Light, Lovely and Low-Calorie

Pineapple Whip is a refreshingly cool, satisfyingly sweet, calorie-shy dessert you'll enjoy all through the warm days of summer. Whip up this good and easy dessert in your mixer in a matter of minutes. Spoon the fluffy mixture into your prettiest dessert glasses; then allow it to chill until set in the refrigerator. If you like, the dessert can be made up well in advance of serving.

There's no need to worry about calories when you serve this tantalizing sweet pineapple treat. More than half the total calories normally contained in the dessert have been eliminated, simply by replacing the sugar ordinarily used with the calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl. Enjoy this light and lovely dessert often... just 82 calories per serving.

Pineapple Whip (Low-Calorie)

2 tablespoons (or envelopes) unflavored gelatin
3 1/2 cups unsweetened pineapple juice

4 teaspoons Sucaryl solution
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind

In a small mixer bowl, soften gelatin in 1/4 cup of the pineapple juice. Heat remaining juice; add to gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Add Sucaryl, salt and lemon rind. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Beat on high speed of mixer until fluffy and double in volume. Chill a few minutes until mixture mounds from spoon; spoon into 6 sherbets. Chill until set.

Makes 6 servings. Each serving contains 82 Calories, 3 grams protein; trace of fat; 19 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 168 Calories.

No Negroes Apply at Dollarway

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Charles Fallis, superintendent of the Dollarway School District, said Tuesday no Negroes applied for entrance into the first grade at Dollarway school during pre-school registration. George Howard, a Negro attorney for plaintiffs in the Dollarway desegregation suit, said Tuesday he would ask that his 14-year-old daughter be re-assigned to the school. Fallis said registration for first graders will be held again in September.

Church Group Will Oppose Mr. Faubus

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Opposition to the reelection of Gov. Orval E. Faubus was announced Tuesday by the Christian Civic Foundation, an organization that claims support of over 2,000 evangelical churches in the state.

Delegates to the North Arkansas Conference of the Methodist church were told of the opposition by Dr. William E. Brown, director of the foundation.

Brown criticized the governor for not answering a questionnaire he said was mailed to him at Huntsville, seeking his opinion on liquor and gambling laws. At the Little Rock Conference of the church, held in Hot Springs last week, it was announced that similar questionnaires are being sent by the foundation to other candidates.

"The governor reportedly said he had not received the questionnaire," Brown said. "It was mailed to him at Huntsville, the address he gave at the time of filing. As he has been absent for eight years, he probably doesn't have a forwarding address."

"We will do our best to send him back to Huntsville for the next two years," Brown said.

The governor said he has not received the questionnaire. Faubus also said he did not know that he would answer it if he did or whether he would want his reply made public.

Brown said the Foundation would also endorse local candidates in some counties and some of the state candidates.

The Conference approved the appointment of Grafton Thomas of Searcy as treasurer of the Methodist Church in Arkansas. Thomas will become the first layman named to the post, and will handle some $2 million in funds of both the Little Rock and North Arkansas conferences.

Earlier, Dr. Cecil R. Culver of Little Rock, executive secretary of the Area Council of Arkansas Methodism, told delegates that membership of the church in the state as increased by 2,366 this year. The church now has an all-time high of 180,734 members, he said.

The North Arkansas Conference gained 1,818 members for a current total of 96,080, he said, and the Little Rock Conference gained $48 for a total of $4,654.

The Rev. Harold D. Womack of Brinkley reported that $4,570,000 was raised in the conferences for all purposes last year. Womack is conference statistician.

The Rev. Lloyd M. Conyers, superintendent of the Paragould district, listed establishment of new churches at Marked Tree and Rogers and 26 new church and educational buildings. Conyers, making the report of the seven district superintendents, said six new parsonages were built.

The conference will end Thursday with the reading of pastoral appointments by Bishop W. Kenneth Pope.

Romance With Korean in a Spin

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—William H. Mahoney's romance with a Korean girl is in a spin—and appeals to the Pope, the President and the Pentagon haven't put them together again.

Mahoney's love affair began when he was in the Army overseas and met Miss Song In Cha, 20, in a Catholic church.

It was in Un Chun Ni, 15 miles north of the 38th Parallel, in the demilitarized zone. When Mahoney, now 24, asked, the priest finally introduced them.

A month later Mahoney proposed. But he had to make the proposal to the Army too.

His officers, noting that he was due to be rotated back home, said there wasn't time to process the papers.

Mahoney asked for a six-month extension on his Korean tour. Refused.

He asked to re-enlist for another four years. Refused again.

Back in the states, Mahoney went to Washington on a 30-day leave. He wrote to every senator in the capital.

He visited Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's office. He wrote to the President. He wrote to the Pope. "I didn't get a reply from the President," Mahoney said, "but several senators wrote to suggest that I try to get a special immigration bill passed in the Senate. And I feel sure the Pope has given me his blessing."

Mahoney has decided that if he can get back to Korea and marry In Cha—her first name—he can bring her home easily enough.

Mahoney tried for a job on a Korea-bound ship, but "the sailors' union wouldn't give me a job. The ship companies wouldn't give me a job without seaman's papers."

Now Mahoney lives at his father's house and searches for employment in hopes he can pay his own way back to Korea. He and In Cha write almost daily.

FCC to See Arkansas Applications

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal Communications Commission examiner Herbert Sharfman set for hearing in Washington Sept. 12 competing applications for radio station operations at Smackover and Magnolia, Ark.

The hearing, which attorneys said should require no more than one day, is to be on the sole issue of whether the applications were in good faith.

Applicants are Smackover Radio Inc., which seeks authority to build and operate a 500-watt daytime station on 610 kilocycles at Smackover, and Magnolia Broadcasting Co. which now operates radio station KVMA at Magnolia on 630 kilocycles and one kilowatt of power. Magnolia seeks to increase its power to five kilowatts.

Also in the case is station KAMD, at Camden, Ark.

The good faith issue was raised originally by Ouachita Valley Radio Corp.—no longer in the case. Ouachita had asked for a 610 kilocycle station at Camden but subsequently changed its application and was dropped from the proceedings.

However, in the earlier proceedings Ouachita had contended that a close connection exists between the two applicants—Smackover and Magnolia—on the one hand and station KAMD at Camden on the other.

The commission, in an order last Jan. 19, added the good faith issue to the case and made KAMD a party to the proceeding. It directed the hearing examiner to determine whether the Smackover and Magnolia applications were filed in good faith or "in part for the purpose of preventing the granting of a construction permit at Camden, Ark., to Ouachita Valley Radio Corp."

Treatment of Riders Alarms Guthridge

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Concern over the present status of "Reverse Freedom Riders" sent to Hyannis, Mass. was voiced both there and in Little Rock Tuesday.

While Gov. John A. Volpe of Massachusetts and other officials were arranging for new, safe housing for 33 Negro children and several adults sent to the community by southern segregationists, the Capital Citizens Council in Little Rock wired Edward M. Kennedy of its unhappiness at treatment of the riders.

And a Little Rock clothing store operator, organizer of a movement called "We Who Care" said enough money has been pledged to support two Negro mothers and 20 children who accepted a one-way bus ticket to Hyannis. James T. Kurran announced last week a movement to attempt to bring back home some of the 32 Negroes the Council has sent to Hyannis. He said he hopes to leave for Hyannis this week to see if the two women want to come back.

Mrs. Guthridge, president of the Council, said he wired the president's youngest brother, "We note that Boston Negroes are picking up Hyannis pilgrims and giving them Negro work in Boston. This is not satisfactory to us."

The telegram, Guthridge said, told Kennedy the Council expects the "wealthy white people of Cape Cod to integrate with these Negroes and give them some of the hundreds of service jobs available there. If Cape Codders refuse to give the jobs and refuse to admit they draw the color line, we will send more Negro pilgrims."

Most of the Negroes sent to Hyannis have been quartered in a community college dormitory. But that must be vacated by June 11 to allow students to return. The problems of where to put the homeless Negroes may be solved by the use of National Guard facilities at Camp Edwards, Falmouth, some 20 miles from Hyannis.

Guthridge said in the telegram he urged Kennedy to "investigate the availability of large unused houses at Hyannis for additional pilgrim housing."

Volpe said after considering health, comfort and convenience factors, no other housing was immediately obtainable in which the "health and safety of the children could be so assured."

Two of the Negroes living at the dormitory found themselves in trouble Monday. Edward W. Burton, 44, who arrived at Hyannis last week from Little Rock, was sent to jail in lieu of $1,000 bail after being charged with illegal possession of a pistol.

Questioning of Burton led to issuance of a warrant against Mrs. Eliza Davis of Cuba, Ala. Mrs. Davis, who has eight children at

They Won't Understand It Anyway

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Those who despair over the monumental costs of "Cleopatra" and "Mutiny on the Bounty" may find some solace in the "Spartacus" record. The gladiators-and-gore epic was termed Universal's folly when Kirk Douglas was producing and starring in it. The bill kept mounting with retakes and retakes of the retakes until the total came to a reported $11 million.

Now Douglas reports a golden lining.

"By the end of this year, the picture is expected to have brought in $20 million," said the actor. "That will mean a good profit, and the run is by no means milked. It's also the kind of picture you could bring back every five years or so."

By some mathematical magic, ordinary films are supposed to double their cost in receipts before showing a profit. That represents the added costs of distribution, advertising, interest, etc.

"But when a picture begins in cost many millions, that ratio no longer prevails," Douglas explained. "You can't show a profit with less than double the cost."

"However, you couldn't prove it by me. I still haven't seen a dime of my share of 'Spartacus' and won't until it's securely in the profit column."

Douglas is now happily working for someone else—Perberg and Seaton in "The Hook."

Otto Preminger muddled the Potomac with "Advise and Consent," his latest all-star, no-holds-barred movie. Much has already been said about what kind of a picture it displays of democracy at work and how it will be considered overseas.

The characters include: a candidate for secretary of state who lies under oath about previous Communist connections. A president who continues to support him, knowing this. A Senate majority leader who keeps house with the leading Washington hostess. A senator who would "rather crawl to Moscow" than risk war, who is constantly surrounded by four goons and who blackmails a colleague.

One previewer said she had no worries about how foreigners would take it. "There's so much talk, they won't understand it."

Space Research Agreement Near

GENEVA (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union are approaching agreement on a coordinated space research program, American officials said today.

The program would include a free exchange of information obtained from weather satellites and space sounding rockets, but would not provide for any joint launchings, the officials said.

The agreement is being worked out in private talks between Hugh Dryden, deputy director of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency, and Soviet space scientist Anatole Blagonravov. Their contacts began earlier this year at the United Nations in New York, and were resumed here last week.

Lewisville to Get a Doctor

LEWISVILLE, Ark. (AP). — Fears that Lewisville would be without a resident physician for the modern Lafayette County Memorial Hospital have ended.

Dr. Robert Hunter of Arkadelphia has decided to move into the offices of Dr. R. H. Harrison, who announced last month that he would move to Little Rock on July 1. Lewisville's only other physician, Dr. Howard Harris, has moved to Dumas.

Frank Schweitzer, administrator of the hospital, said Dr. Hunter heard about the problem a few weeks ago while treating a patient from Lewisville.

Leslie to Become Frontier Town

LESLIE, Ark. (AP)—The community of Leslie will become a frontier town Thursday through Saturday as residents don western garb for a combination reunion and fund-raising celebration.

The event was begun in 1954 to bring former residents back for a homecoming.

Funds raised at the event will go to the J. O. Cotton Memorial Hospital Fund, started six years ago by the Leslie Business and Professional Women's Club.

Thus far, $15,000 has been raised and construction begun on a brick building to accommodate 10 patients. The building is scheduled to be completed this year.

The community has no physician now. The memorial fund was named after the late Dr. Cotton.

Hyannis was released on recognition.

Authorities said Burton was spotted trying to remove a jammed cartridge from a revolver.

Possible Successor to Adenauer

DORTMUND, Germany (AP)—Josef Herman Dufhues, interior minister of the state of North Rhine-Westphalia, has emerged as a new prospect to succeed West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Adenauer's Christian Democratic party re-elected the chancellor chairman at the party convention Tuesday. Then the delegates named Dufhues, 54, a lawyer, to the new post of executive party chairman.

In the new post Dufhues will run the party administration and prepare it for the crucial period after Adenauer, 86, retires.

Although Dufhues ostensibly will be the counterpart of a U. S. national party chairman, political observers immediately promoted him to the small unofficial list of potential heirs to the chancellorship.

Adenauer has said he would retire before the 1965 general elections.

Army to Draft 5,000 in August

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army will take in 5,000 from the draft in August, the Defense Department announced today.

The new draft call is the same as the quota for July and 1,500 below the allocation for this month.

The 5,000 to be draft in August represent about one-third of the Army's new manpower requirements for that month.

Army officials said the remainder of the 16,100 men to be enrolled in August will come into service through enlistment.

The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force do not intend to draw manpower from the draft during August.

Automobile accidents caused 1.35 million disabling injuries in the United States during 1959.

Can't Happen Elsewhere in World

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It could not have happened anywhere except in this world.

All over people, politicians and even nations took big sniffs of optimism about things like bathing suits, budgets, billions and Berlin.

They acted sunny, even though in a lot of places rain was coming down like water from a busted pipe.

In Tokyo a Japanese textile company said it would soon market a swim suit guaranteed to keep the wearer afloat. If it didn't of course, the wearer might not be around to get his money back.

All day Tuesday there was nothing more optimistic—and probably ridiculous—than the news from Congress' House Ways and Means Committee. It voted to boost the limit on the public debt up to $308 billion in the belief it could eventually come down to $300 billion.

Like many another old man, West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer lives on hope. Tuesday he told the East German Communists who want to buy on credit from him — he might do business if they'd tear down the wall in Berlin.

For some strange reason some defense-minded senators on a subcommittee, who should have known better, added more than a quarter billion dollars to a record annual military money bill but attempted to keep their decision secret.

Even the White House got itself into a hopeful mood. It said a joint television appearance by President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev was still possible.

It has been possible for months, for both sides have been talking about it for months, and it hasn't happened yet.

Millions of people's hopes shot up when Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said the Kennedy administration will propose to Congress next year a top-to-bottom cut in income tax rates.

A lot of things can happen between now and then to spoil the hopes; a big-boast in the economy and the mood in Congress.

Perhaps the most pathetic note of optimism came from Paris where the two top men of the European Secret Army assassins in Algeria are in jail.

The No. 1 man, ex-Gen. Raoul Salan, is under life sentence. His No. 2 man, ex-Gen. Edmond Jouhaud, is under sentence of death unless President Charles de Gaulle spares him.

Jouhaud sent a note to his fellow prisoner, Salan, asking him to tell the secret army to stop killing Moslems.

The fact that Jouhaud waited until this dramatic moment to write such a note would indicate he hoped this, if nothing else, might save his life.

The most valid optimism of the day, perhaps, pervaded a family of five from Communist China, just arrived in Chicago by plane from Hong Kong to start a new life.

They were admitted under Kennedy's emergency program to help such refugees.

Bids Taken on Pumping Station

MEMPHIS (AP)—A low bid of $1,169,443 was submitted by Woodstock Construction Co. of Memphis Tuesday on a pumping station project on the White River near Helena, Ark.

Bids were opened at the Memphis District Engineers office. The backwater pumping project includes construction of a building and installation of government furnished pumps, diesel engines and piping.

Chicken and Beef Hard Buys to Beat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef cuts and broiler-fryer chickens will compete for top attention in supermarkets and groceries this weekend.

One large chain said both rib roasts and the oven-ready variety have been marked down 10 cents a pound since a week ago.

Additionally, pork and ham were reported in plentiful supply at good prices in the Northeast and Southeast.

Eggs, especially the larger sizes, were described as exceptional values in some areas.

Lambs and veal generally were expected to be higher than a week ago.

In the Northeast, merchants reported, vegetable counters will be loaded with beets, cabbage, corn, miscellaneous greens, spinach, rhubarb, Maine potatoes and lettuce.

Corn and potatoes also will be featured elsewhere across the country, along with such favorites as tomatoes, cucumbers, green beans, cabbage, celery, green onions and carrots.

Strawberries still are running strong in most sections, and peaches are beginning to come in from several Southern states.

Citrus fruits, including oranges, lemons and limes particularly, will be right alongside them in many markets at reasonable prices. Bananas, top.

Educated at L. R. Expense, Youths Leave

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An Employment Security Division officer said Monday Little Rock spent $13 million in the last 20 years educating young people who eventually had to leave the state because they couldn't get a decent job.

Don Leird told a civic club that the amount spent is only a drop in the bucket compared to the total earnings of the people who left the state. He said a conservative estimate of that figure would be $99 million.

Leird said a chamber of commerce survey showed that more than half of the 1940 graduates of Little Rock high schools have left the state.

The figures, he said, were cited for Little Rock but the exodus prevails in most of the state.

Leird said more than 10,000 young people sought jobs in Little Rock last year but only a few found desirable work and most could not find any kind of work.

There has been little organized effort to follow through from schooling to experienced worker, he added.

He urged employers at all levels to begin job training as "a reasonable investment for a predictable profit tomorrow."

White Ferry at State Expense

NEWARK, Ark. (AP) — The state Highway Department is operating a free ferry across the White River between Oil Trough and Newark on state Highway 122.

The ferry had been a toll ferry. A condemnation suit to assess the value of an easement on one bank is pending. The Highway Department took over the ferry on May 26.

Bids Taken on 13 Highway Projects

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bids on 13 road projects in 15 counties will be opened by the State Highway Commission June 27.

The Commission said Tuesday total estimated cost of the projects is $5,250,000.

The largest project calls for surfacing of 12.3 miles of Highway 81 in Ashley County from Highway 81 at Hamburg north to the Drew County line. Four bridges will be constructed on the road.

Bids will be sought for the second time on erosion control on the south terminal interchange of Interstate 30 at Little Rock. At a May 23 meeting of the commission a bid of $21,684 by Carter's Lawn and Tree Service of Dardanelle was declared irregular and other bids rejected as being too high.

Other projects on which bids will be taken, by county, are:

Cross: Surfacing .96 of a mile U.S. Highway 64 from the east end of St. Francis Bay Bridge near Levesque east.

Lee: Surfacing 4.9 miles of Highway 44 from Bear Creek Dam north toward Marianna.

Sevier: Surfacing 3.45 miles and building a 976-foot overpass on U.S. Highway 70 at DeQueen.

Howard: Surfacing 7.46 miles and building a 362-foot bridge on Highway 4 from the end of a project one mile southeast of the Saline River Bridge to Umpire.

Cleburne: Seeding slopes in the Greers Ferry Reservoir area on Highway 16 and 92.

White and Independence: Surfacing 9.56 miles and building a 122-foot bridge on Highway 157 from Sunnydale to Pleasant Plains.

Garland: Surfacing 5.59 miles of Highway 227 from 1/4 mile east of Mountain Pine north into Lake Ouachita State Park.

Bradley and Calhoun: Surfacing 1.82 miles of Highway 160 from .6 of a mile northwest of the Bradley-Calhoun line east.

Washington: Surfacing 4.82 miles of Highway 170 from the north end of the bridge over Lee Creek at Devils Den State Park north toward West Fork.

Benton: Building the substructure on a 1,515 foot bridge over the White River and short sections of roadway embankment on Highway 12. The new bridge is to be located immediately south of the present bridge, about six miles east of Rogers.

Randolph: Building two bridges totaling 175 feet and one 161 foot bridge on Highway 93 over Bakers Creek, Diles Creek and Curley Branch.

Explorer 1, 31-pound cylinder launched in January, 1958, and still orbiting the earth is the oldest man-made vehicle in space.

Man Miraculously Escapes Death

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A timber salesman miraculously escaped death at a sawmill when a shotgun rigged in a hobby trap he became ensnared in failed to fire Tuesday, Sheriff Duffie Searcy said.

Duffy said the salesman, George Nichols, 68, had visited a small sawmill east of Hot Springs and tripped over a wire designed to fire a .12 gauge sawed-off shotgun. The hammer of the gun snapped, Duffy said, but the weapon did not discharge.

Duffy said the sawmill was owned by Frank Nichols, 60, of Malvern. Nichols said he had set

U. S. Tax Take Up 14.8 Per Cent

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Collections of federal taxes in Arkansas during the first four months of this year were up 14.8 per cent over the same period in 1961, the Internal Revenue Service said Tuesday. The IRS said the increase of $29.2 million was due to a healthy economic and employment climate in the state. The IRS said collections totaled $226.4 million.

No charges were filed.

One For My Dame

By JACK WEBB

Chapter 34

"But Carla," I said. "How? What?"

"A remarkable girl. Did you know she was a violinist in her college class a couple of years ago?"

"What's that?"

He held up his hand. "Twenty-odd years of thinking her father was a little less than God, seeing him climb in public esteem, emerge lately as a crime-and-corruption fighter extraordinary." Geiser sighed. "Why shouldn't he be? Consider the sources of information he had, so long as he stayed clear of his kink. All this going around a girl whose mother had died at her birth, who had no brothers or sisters to pass things around, level things out, who made her own life revolve around her father until the day she saw him kill a man."

"What?"

"You're a Johnny come lately," Geiser told me. "You didn't arrive until the second murder. That precious bit of film was brought to Congressman DiMucci by one of his own investigators, a fellow named Harold Jensen. He had got onto the Profaks through a bright little blonde, who worked in their home office. At least that's what he told one of his fellow investigators."

"Ginny Clinton," I said. "You couldn't blame him too much, Lieutenant."

Geiser's sharp eyes narrowed speculatively. "Jackson, one of those blows on the head must have done you some good. That sounded almost human."

"The murder," I said.

"If you just wouldn't keep interrupting. The business about the investigator and the blonde we got from Intelligence. Now this comes from Carla DiMucci. She was reading on the back veranda at Roma Vista when Jensen brought the microfilm to DiMucci. He offered the film and his resignation to the Congressman for a hundred grand. Alternative: he'd do his duty as a patriotic public servant. There was an open library window. That's how Miss DiMucci got in on it. She was peering between the awning of the glider and its back when her father shot Jensen, and she saw him drop the packet with the film in it into his top desk drawer—before he called Profaks to come and get rid of the body. We haven't found it yet."

Geiser paused to light another cigarette. I was feeling a little of the shock Carla must have felt, a little of the deep fright that must have dwelt with Carlo Mio in those few last awful moments I had shared with him.

"Do you ever think when the house goes by..."

"I was thinking of Jensen's last ride," I said. "They did use a hearse, I suppose?"

"Ambulance. At least we've a witness who reported it was white. A vehicle which left Roma Vista at about the right time. We haven't found any trace of Jensen yet."

"What me to make a guess?"

"Join the experts."

"I came to me during my hearse ride. You ever listen to the Profak Brothers commercial? They offer the services of a modern crematorium."

"Well now," Geiser said softly.

Little Time Noways to Remember

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In our crowded now there is little time for remembrance.

So it was this week the 18th anniversary of the Allied D-Day landings in Normandy caught me by surprise.

Then the feeling of surprise gave way to a feeling of guilt. How, even after 18 years, could I for a moment forget the incidents of that mighty hour?

I went into the kitchen and from a cabinet pulled out an old and time-lovely silver dish, made by a fine craftsman centuries ago.

Things tie us to our past, and this small silver dish is my souvenir of D-Day.

On that fateful morning that now seems so long ago I was in an encampment outside Winchester in southern England. Our group of correspondents was scheduled to go ashore the following day with Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley, the American field commander.

Waiting was hard. A member of us went into town.

We entered famous old Winchester Cathedral, one of the world's most beautiful beings. Some of us who weren't used to lie didn't pin on any medals.

"How did Carla get the film?"

"DiMucci called John Arnaldi to help him get Jensen's body out of the library and to the rear of the house. That gave her about three clear minutes. She said she had to know—what her father had killed was even more important than that he had. That was something she tried to hold onto, did until she read the contents of the film."

"How?"

"Library at UCLA. She had been doing some graduate work there in government." The inflection on the final word was ironic. "That's the afternoon, by the way, she met you," he continued. "She claims she was on her way to see us and just couldn't make it. You were right about one thing, Jackson, she's not an habitual drinker."

I frowned. "But why plant the film on me?"

"She had come to the decision that she couldn't see us without talking to her father first. She didn't dare to take the film back home with her. Neither was it the sort of thing she could give you casually and ask you to hang onto for a couple of days. So she decided to hide it. And it wasn't until she saw them kill the cab driver after getting your address from him that she knew she couldn't stop what they had started, that your life and possibly her own depended upon them not knowing where that little strip of film was hidden."

"They killed the cab driver. Who?"

"Vito Reggiardo and Joseph Profak were waiting outside of Roma Vista," Lieutenant Geiser grinned briefly. "A Profak, yet. That gives you an idea how hot the information was she had hidden in your bathroom wall."

To Be Continued

Let's Have A Picnic!

Kids from six to sixty love a picnic and nobody has yet discovered why food tastes so much better out of doors—it's simply a fact of summer.

So why not prepare a special picnic at home on Father's Day, June 17th? And to avoid the holiday crowds on the Fourth of July, plan your own patio party or backyard barbecue. When the food is fine, nobody minds a picnic right at home.

Tops for out-of-doors eating is a good thick steak—brush it with a sauce spiced with Tabasco, the liquid red pepper, and it's even better.

Instead of the usual salad try this recipe for garden relish slaw, a mixture of raw fresh vegetables.

Garden Relish Slaw

- 2 cups shredded raw cabbage
- 1/2 cup shredded raw carrots
- 2 tablespoons minced parsley
- 1/4 cup sliced radishes
- 1 tablespoon minced chives or scallion tops
- 1/2 cup salad dressing
- 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco

Mix together raw vegetables. Combine salad dressing and Tabasco; add to vegetables and toss lightly. Season with salt. Serve immediately, or pack into covered carton and chill 'til ready to serve. Yield: 4 servings.

Tabasco Steak Sauce

- 1 clove garlic
- 3 tablespoons lime or lemon juice
- 1/2 cup salad oil
- 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

If desired, put garlic to soak in the oil the day before the barbecue. Combine all ingredients in small saucepan, and mix well. Yield: 1/2 cup sauce.

saying prayers said prayers then. Leaving, we passed a small antique shop. I saw this lovely silver dish in the window, and went in and bought it for my wife. But it has become a bridge across time for me.

Later we went to the nearest port and interviewed the first surviving casualties as they were ferried back from France. Their stories were true and awful.

On subsequent days through long months it was my privilege to help chronicle the unfolding splendor of our men's defeat of the German juggernaut.

It is hard now for me to realize that the great sea armada that forged our landing in France has long since been dismantled. That the vehicles on which we rode to victory are rust. That the armies of men who wielded so tremendous a purpose are forever time-scattered and can never be bugled together again, not at least as they were then in their prime.

On the morning of the 18th anniversary of D-Day, after looking again at my souvenir silver dish, I went into my living room. I pulled from a shelf a book called "Brave Men," written by a brave, dear dead friend named Ernie Pyle.

I opened it at random, and these words caught my eye:

"We have won this war because our men are brave, and because of many other things—because of Russia, and England, and the passage of time, and the gift of nature's materials. We did not win it because destiny created us better than all other peoples. I hope that in victory we are more grateful than we are proud. I hope we can rejoice in victory—but humbly. The dead men would not want us to gloat."

"All of us together will have to learn how to reassemble our broken world into a pattern so firm and so fair that another great war cannot soon be possible. To tell the simple truth, most of us over in France don't pretend to know the right answer. Submersion in war does not necessarily qualify a man to be the master of the peace. All we can do is fumble and try once more—try out the memory of our anguish—and be as tolerant with each other as we can."

Johnson Talks to AF Graduates

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Vice President Lydon B. Johnson said today that the challenge of D-Day was not greater than those which now face us in the world.

"Then as now," he said in an address prepared for commencement exercises at the U.S. Air Force Academy "we faced the unknown—the risk of venturing to do what had not been done before."

Johnson spoke on the 18th anniversary of the landing on the beaches of Normandy, which set the stage for the liberation of Europe.

"Today our soldiers, sailors, Marines and airmen are again on guard in Europe," he said. "They stand ready also at the outposts of freedom in the Far East. Only last month, responding promptly to new dangers of aggression, additional American air, sea, and land forces moved to Thailand in support of freedom, and at the behest of a free government. Already their timely presence has brought new confidence and hope."

Johnson said the victory of D-Day "like all the successes of freedom, was preceded by prophecies of despair."

On the international scene, he said there was an impatient demand for social reform and economic growth.

"We should not be too surprised if this campaign sometimes leads to criticism of our country," he said.

"But these temporary explosions of irritation and anger must not obscure the community of interest which unites us in or devotion to freedom and peace."

Slayer of 3 Goes to Death Calmly

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Henry Adolph Busch, 31, who strangled three women because of an uncontrollable urge to kill, died calmly in the prison gas chamber today.

Busch was sentenced to death for the first-degree murder of his aunt and was convicted of strangling two other Los Angeles women.

The U.S. Court of Appeals rejected Tuesday a plea for a writ of habeas corpus. His attorney, Al Matthews of Los Angeles, contended the prosecution inadvertently had failed to introduce the report Busch had killed his aunt, Martha Briggs, 53, after an argument.

The court noted the state supreme court had already turned down a similar plea and ruled that "there does not appear enough here to present a federal question."

The two other 1960 strangulations by Busch involved Elmyra Miller and Shirley Payne. Each was ruled second-degree murder.

School Banking System Works

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—Students at two Camden schools have, for the past two years, been taking part in a unique bank plan that gives them a joint savings account and an individual one.

Each week an official of the Citizens National Bank brings to the classrooms at Fairview and Harmony Grove school a machine that resembles a postage stamp dispenser.

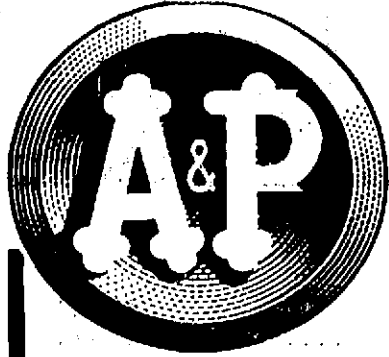

For a quarter, students purchase a stamp and paste it in an individual book.

Jointly the 700 students have $8,325. Each student can withdraw his individual savings at any time.

George R. Shankle, vice president of the bank, said the 550 students at Fairview had saved $8,000 and the 150 at Harmony Grove, $1,325.

Shankle said the bank is running the program at a loss, because of the time and effort at the schools, but it is worth it.

Population of Canada's Quebec province is estimated at 5,280,000.

Off the Cuff

by ELLEN JACOBSEN

On The Green

The 1962 Augusta Masters Golf Tournament was certainly the most thrilling in recent memory, ending in a three-way tie among Arnold Palmer, Gary Player and Dow Finsterwald.

Palmer, with his famous "clutch" golf came from behind to win the play-off on April 9th, making him the third man in history to win the Masters three times. Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan, who, by the way, has the best score of all the Augusta champions with a 274 in 1953, were the other two triple winners.

Our Arrow representatives governing the tournament were masters in their own rights, decked out in Mr. Golf shirts from our Masters Gallery collection. Styled in knits and popular Decton, a luxurious blend of Dacron and cotton, the shirts in the collection are designed for action on the green.

And action is what golf fans get when masters like Palmer, Player and Finsterwald get together. Watching them on the links reminded us of the three previous Masters play-offs... in 1953, '42 and '54. We wonder if the young Arnold Palmer will be the first man to win four Masters Championships. We can only wait 'til next year and see!

For a booklet about men's shirts with tips on fashions and care, write to me at The Arrow Company, Dept. K, 530 Fifth Avenue, N.Y.C. I'll also be happy to answer any questions you have about men's fashions.

It is estimated there are 49.3 million in U. S. schools today.

Europe Booms While U. S. Simply Walks

EDITOR'S NOTE:—The Kennedy administration is studying Western Europe's tax, economic and budget policies in an effort to find out what makes Europe run while America walks. Reasons for these studies and their possible bearing on future U.S. fiscal policies are discussed in this third of four articles by AP economic affairs writer Sterling F. Green.

The Market and the Economy third of a series of four

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is probing the growth possibilities in a European-style policy of neutral federal budgets—less concern over small and temporary deficits, less emphasis each year on surpluses.

President Kennedy has ordered his Council of Economic Advisers to study Western Europe's budget, tax and economic policies to find out, if it can, what makes Europe run while America walks.

Behind his decision is the fact that for the past five years the European allies have been expanding their output twice as fast as the United States. Some have gone beyond "full employment" and now have labor shortages.

Some reasons are evident—the swift development of the Common Market, the rush to raise living standards which still are far below this country's, different economic planning. Still their elements have caught the eye of administration economists.

Whether or not these fiscal policies have helped build Europe's visible prosperity can be debated. But the Kennedy administration, now searching for ways to turn into full employment prosperity, a merely satisfactory recovery intends to find out if it can.

Of special interest are Europe's tax structures, for Kennedy has announced he will send Congress this summer the blueprint for a massive 1963 tax overhaul. There is speculation that it will contain a net tax cut of up to $5 billion. At what points should this tax relief be concentrated to produce maximum growth?

Republicans who blame Kennedy economic policies for the stock market's wild gyrations, already have assailed the European study as "a real Alice-in-wonderland" adventure.

There are ample signs that the study and its director, Chairman Walter W. Heller of the Economic Council, will be the target of GOP campaign speeches throughout the fall congressional election campaign.

The Heller study is expected to propose some changes in the budget itself—the "administrative budget" historically used for federal bookkeeping. Economists have long argued that it is a poor yardstick for measuring the actual impact of federal spending and tax-collecting on the economy.

Heller has indicated he favors a budget which would show the economic effects of the huge government-held trust funds, including Social Security.

But Kennedy and Heller are focusing on matters of greater moment than tinkering with the fis-

$5 Billion Tax Cut Next Year Planned

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Unless the business recovery unexpectedly catches fire, the 1963 tax bill which President Kennedy plans to cal yardsticks. They want to know for instance, whether a tax cut in 1963 might have the same beneficial effect that the last one had, in 1954. And whether it might be preferable as a stimulant—as Britain seems to believe—to a rapid increase in federal spending.

Historically, Americans have expected their government—no matter which party is in power—to budget for a surplus. All too often the surpluses have turned into deficits, but the goal of balancing the budget has been accepted as synonymous with fiscal responsibility.

One aim of the Heller study, some officials here suggest privately, is a public relations ploy—to pave the way for public acceptance of some possible departures from time-honored American fiscal tradition.

That squares with the current hints that Kennedy will ask Congress, to start considering a sizable tax cut in 1963 as part of a basic revision of the patchwork U.S. tax system. A tax cut almost certainly would mean a calculated budget deficit—to be erased later, hopefully, by the shot in the arm it would give the economy.

Barbecue Chicken Elegant With Pineapple

For the outdoor cooking season, try golden curly buttered pineapple slices as a perfect compliment to succulent barbecued chicken. A continental wine, oil and herb mixture is used to marinate the meat, then as a basting sauce. The last few minutes, place curried pineapple on the grill until golden brown. Garden relishes, cold potato salad and French bread complete a delicious backyard party menu.

Circle "P" Barbecue Chicken
2 broiling chickens
1 lemon
Salt, pepper, paprika
½ cup salad oil or melted butter
½ cup white table wine
Fresh or dried herbs
1 (9-ounce) can pineapple slices
Butter, Curry powder
Have chickens split, and quartered if large. Brush all over with cut lemon. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, paprika. Mix oil and wine. Snip in 1 to 3 teaspoons chives, parsley, thyme, rosemary or tarragon (use ½ as much dried ones). Pour over chicken and let stand several hours, turning occasionally. Starting with cut side, barbecue slowly over charcoal or very low heat in oven broiler until browned and tender, 35 to 45 minutes. Turn and brush with marinade often. Just before serving, brush pineapple with butter and sprinkle with curry powder. Grill or saute until tinged with brown. Serve hot with chicken. Makes 4 servings.

perhaps $5 billion a year for industry and consumers.

Tax rates from top to bottom would be cut under the broad program now being drawn up by the administration.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon says the tax package is aimed at spurring maximum long-range economic growth. He says no decision has been made on how far to go in offsetting lower tax rates by broadening the base of the tax structure and closing loopholes.

Most officials now are said to favor a solid tax reduction for business and consumers. It would be, in effect, a raise in take-home pay for workers, a source of fresh capital for investors and a boost in the after-tax profits of industry which would be available for reinvestment.

Estimates of the net tax relief are running as high as $7 billion. Five billion is more frequently mentioned, as being about the minimum cut which would make enough difference in consumers' paychecks to encourage purchases of new cars, homes and major appliances.

Reductions in the top income tax rate from 91 per cent to perhaps 65 per cent has been considered. At the other end off he taxable income scale, the basic 20 per cent might be dropped to 16 or 18 per cent.

The corporation tax rate of 52 per cent probably would be cut to something below 50 per cent. A range of 47 to 49 per cent has been under discussion.

Some bad news would accompany the good. A whole bundle of reforms is under consideration, to eliminate the patchwork of special concession and exemptions stitched onto the tax structure over the years for the benefit of special groups. But all taxpayers would come out ahead.

Such a tax reduction would mean at least one more year of budget deficit. Revenues presumably would be cut seriously in fiscal 1964, a year in which government spending is expected to rise to $95 or $96 billion. The anticipated increase of about $3 billion from this year's budgeted outlays is mainly the result of built-in increases in the space and military programs.

Despite the prospective red ink, most administration advisers are said to be convinced that strong medicine is needed to fortify—if not to rescue—Kennedy's grand strategy for American growth in a world of heightened competition. The Kennedy strategy is two-sided.

It involves:

First, enlisting the cooperation of labor and management in keeping wage settlements and price decisions noninflationary.

Second, making it possible for business to amass the funds needed for modernization of the nation's industrial plant.

The first approach has run into grave trouble. Steelmakers rebelled at price restraint and set out to improve their profits in the traditional way—a price boost. Kennedy reacted angrily and forcefully to salvage his grand design.

The second approach is faring better. The Treasury shortly will issue liberalized tax allowances for depreciation on machinery and equipment, and Congress seems likely to enact most of Kennedy's first-phase tax revision program, built around a tax credit for big and little companies which invest in new plant equipment.

The administration is confident these measures will remove many of the financial obstacles to the cutting of costs and the improvement of efficiency. If so, they may incidentally make business less anti-Kennedy.

ESD Making Fulton Co. Labor Survey

By JOHN R. STARR

Jobseekers in Fulton County are getting royal treatment these days.

A six-man team from the state Employment Security Division is conducting an intensive labor survey in the small north Arkansas county (population 6,657).

When the ESD is through, statistics on the Fulton County labor market will be the most complete in the state. In addition, job seekers will have a clearer picture of their own skills and money-making potentialities.

The team interviewed and tested 200 applicants at Mammoth Spring during the first week it was in the county. ESD officials estimate more than 1,000 persons will be catalogued before the survey is completed around Aug. 1.

Meanwhile, personnel in the Little Rock ESD office are collecting information about Fulton County's economic situation. This data and result of the labor survey will be combined into a report which will give a detailed profile of the county's economic resources.

"This report will be turned over to county leaders," says J. L. Bland, ESD administrator. "It will help them determine what direction they should take to stimulate their economy. It will give them a clear picture of their strengths and weaknesses."

The Fulton County survey is similar, but more detailed, to a survey made in a four-county area (Independence, Sharp, Stone and Izard) two years ago.

It is part of an ESD program to take its services into areas which do not have easy access to one of the 30 ESD regional offices. The nearest ESD office to Fulton County is at Batesville, 50 miles away.

The survey team had four weeks of intensive training in the Little Rock office before it went into the field. Emmett Wilson, director of special programs for the ESD, met many times with county leaders and a schedule of the team's stops was circulated around the county.

The team will visit 21 communities during its three months of work.

Wilson said three types of job-seekers are being interviewed and tested—the unemployed, the underemployed and those who are working but who would like a better job.

Each applicant fills out a comprehensive work history report, then he is subjected to a battery of general interest and aptitude tests to determine his potential skills. A counselor then will discuss with each applicant his job future. The entire process takes about 4½ hours per applicant.

"With this information, we can set up programs of training based on need of the community," Wilson says. "A survey like this is excellent bait for industry."

Information collected by the ESD will be made available to the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission which has helped many communities conduct similar surveys on a limited scale in the past few years.

After Fulton County what? Wilson says there are 22 Arkansas counties which could benefit from such a survey. The federal government, which pays the on-site cost of all ESD operations, insist that such surveys be made in areas of substantial unemployment or underemployment.

Fulton County got the first survey partly because it made the first request for one. Also, Fulton County's unemployment ratio is 11.6 per cent, compared to a state average of 6.4 per cent and a national average of 5.6 per cent.

"We aren't sure what we will do next," Wilson said. "I'm sure the team will move to some other county. We have several requests from other counties for a survey. But I can't say now whether we'll hire additional teams. Right now we're more interested in a complete report. We could spread ourselves too thin if we try to branch out too much."

After the survey report is complete, which Wilson estimates will be about two months after the team returns to Little Rock, the ESD will send a labor market analyst into Fulton County to help business and industrial development leaders interpret information collected.

Wilson said the Fulton County project is not an experiment, but a sample of the ESD's stepped-up program for smaller communities.

"We call it taking the ESD to those who can't come to it," he said.

Facts of Life in Hope and Arkansas

By J. C. TILLMAN

Associated Press Staff Writer
Arkansas, the land of pine forests, now has something new in pine trees — an imported variety that produces edible nuts.

The Italian pines were brought to Hope by Rev. Joseph S. Geno.

pastor of the Southside Assembly. He has three of them growing in the yard of the church.

The trees are now less than a foot tall and only two-years old, but at maturity will be as tall as Arkansas pines.

The Italians use the dark brown nuts, about the size of a peanut, much as we use walnut or pecan. No plans for mass import of the trees was announced by Rev. Geno.

Memories of the state high school basketball tournament are still being revived.

One of the stories from the tournament just recently brought to light was a humane act by the Jonesboro team that won the tourney.

They were on "Cloud 9" as they left the stadium, but not too excited to help a man push his car from the mud. They didn't ask who he was or wait to be thanked for their deed. But somehow their benefactor knew their identity.

Later JHS principal Bob Bradbury received a letter and a book of Robert Frost's poems from Rev. Lester Bickford of North Little Rock, in thanks. The inscribed book was placed in the library.

Senior trips are almost as much a part of graduation as the diploma and every year schools all over the state schedule them.

Whether any of the students ever "miss the boat," or bus on these trips remained a moot point until this year when Kenny Allen, a senior at Trumann high school, did just that.

"Sizes" described by numbers can be confusing. In cantaloupes they vary from 45 to 23. The smaller the number, the larger the melon. This week Childs is featuring Jumbo 27-size cantaloupes — gives you more luscious melon for your money.
